Dear Hiring Manager,

I am excited to apply for the Public Relations position at [Company Name]. As a senior at Auburn University majoring in Public Relations with a Business minor, I have gained strong skills in strategic communication, brand management, and digital marketing. My experience includes helping local startups and nonprofits increase visibility and community engagement, along with studying business abroad in Milan and Madrid, which gave me a global perspective on marketing and public relations strategies.

In addition to my coursework, I have worked as a marketing intern, where I gained valuable experience in digital marketing and content creation. My role involved collaborating with a sales team to support their efforts through marketing strategies, creating digital campaigns, and driving community engagement through social media.

I also worked directly with startups and nonprofits, creating PR strategies to boost their public image and organizing events that enhanced community outreach. With my experience in marketing, public relations, and sales support, I am confident I can contribute effectively to your team. I would love the opportunity to bring my skills in communication and digital marketing to [Company Name].

Thank you for your time and consideration. My resume is attached, as well as my professional portfolio, which includes samples of my work. I will make myself available to speak with you at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

Brooke Brewer
